LIBRARY PAGE

DEFINITION

Under direct supervision, performs routine manual and clerical duties for the Library District; collects, sorts, files, and shelves books, magazines, digital media, audio books, and other library materials; retrieves library materials from drop off and storage areas; provides patron services such as answering questions and locating materials; assists with passport application and document screening; maintains the Library in a clean and orderly fashion; and performs related work as required.

SUPERVISION RECEIVED AND EXERCISED

Receives direct supervision from assigned supervisory or management personnel. Exercises no direct supervision over staff.

CLASS CHARACTERISTICS

This is an entry-level classification. Initially under close supervision, incumbents with basic related experience learn to perform the full range of manual and clerical support duties and direct questions from library patrons to the appropriate staff. As experience is gained, assignments become more varied and are performed with greater independence. Work is usually supervised while in progress and fits an established structure or pattern. Exceptions or changes in procedures are explained in detail as they arise. Since this class is often used as a training class, employees may have only limited or no directly related work experience. This class is distinguished from the Library Clerk class in that the latter performs the more complex and technical library activities that require additional knowledge, skills, and experience.
